"Although the Government of the nity to secure for Russia once more complete sovereignty and indepen-

AN EPIPHANY SERMON.

SOME REFLECTIONS ON THE NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER.

Whenever the State meddles with the Church's business, writes Mr. G. W. E. Russell in the Daily News, it contrives to make a muddle. This familiar truth has been exemplified afresh by the decree which dedicated January 6th to devotion connected with the war. The feast of the Epiphany has had, at least since the fourth century, its definite place in the Christian year, its special function, and its peculiar lesson. The date is the 6th of January; the function is to commemorate the revelation of Christianity to the Gentile world; and the lesson is the fulfilment of all that the better part of Heathendom had believed in and sought after, in the religion which emanated from Bethlehem. To confuse the traditional observance of this day with the horrors and agonies of war, its mixed motives and its dubious issues, was indeed a triumph of ineptitude.

Tennyson wrote of "this northern island" undered once from all the human race; and when Christians first began to observe the Epiphany or Theophany (as the feast was indifferently called), their own forefathers were among the heathen on whom the light of the Holy Manger was before long to shine. It has shone on us now for a good many centuries; England has ranked as one of the chiefest of Christian nations, and has always professed, and often felt, a charitable concern for the races which are still lying in darkness. Epiphany is very specially the feast of a missionary Church; and the strongest appeal which it could address to Heathendom would be to cry, "See what Christianity has done for the world. Christianity possesses the one religion. Come in, and share its blessings."

AFTER TWO THOUSAND YEARS. There have been times and places at which that appeal could be successfully made. Indeed, as Gibbon owned, it was one of the causes to which the gradual triumph of Christianity was due. But for Europe at the present moment to address that appeal to Africa or India or China would be to invite a deadly repulse.

THAT PAIN BEHIND YOUR SHOULDER

is probably due to disordered liver. Pinkettes dislodge liver impurities, stimulate bile secretion, and soothe the complexion and sweeten the breath.

the gentle little laxative of all doctors, or from the (so-called) "pills," from Dr. Williams' Medicine, or Dr. Sturgeson's, or Dr. Chamberlain's, or Dr. Scott's.

partes. In the long ages—Heathendom might reply—which have elapsed since the world "rose out of chaos," you have improved very little of the manners of these primal monsters which "have each other in the slime." Two thousand years of Christianity have not taught you to bat your swords into ploughshares. You still make your sons to pass through the fire to Moloch, and the most remarkable developments of physical science are those which make possible the destruction of human life on the largest scale. Certainly in Zeppelins and submarines and poisonous gas there is very little to remind the world of Epiphany and what it stands for.

Thirty years ago, the great Lord Shaftesbury wrote: "The present is terrible, the future far more so; every day adds to the power and facility of the means of destruction. Science is hard at work (science the great, nay, the only, God of these days) to discover and concentrate the shortest and easiest methods to annihilate the human race. We see the results of that work in German methods of warfare."

Germany has for four centuries asserted for herself a conspicuous place in European religion. She has been a bully there as in other fields, and the last and the time have submitted to her pretensions. Now, by the mouth of her official pastors, she has renounced the religion of sacrifice for the lust of conquest, and has substituted the creed of Odin for the faith of Christ. A country which, in spite of learning and opportunity, has wilfully lapsed from civilization into barbarism, can scarcely evangelize Confucians or Buddhists.

IN THESE LATTER DAYS. If we turn from the Protestant stronghold of the north to the citadel of authority at Rome—the signs of the Epiphany are equally lacking. The infallibility which was not protect the largest section of Christianity from the crimes of the inquisition and the massacre of St. Bartholomew's Day has proved itself equally impotent in these latter days. No one could have expected the Pope who has spiritual children in all lands to take sides in an international dispute; but one would have thought that a divinely-given infallibility would have denounced, with the trumpet-tongue of Sinai, the orgies of sexual and sacrilegious crime which have devastated Belgium.

Is the outlook in slided Russia any more hopeful than in hostile Germany and in neutral Rome? I must confess that I cannot answer. We were always told that the forces which blended together in one the different races and tongues of the Russian Empire were a spiritual force; that the Russian held the faith dearer than his life; and that even his devotion to the Czar had its origin in religion. At this moment of perplexity and peril, will the Russian Church manifest her power, and instil into her children the primary conceptions of Christian citizenship?

OUR NATIONAL OFFENCES.

And if we look nearer home, we must acknowledge that the condition of England has not always been such as to inspire Heathendom with a lively desire to be like us. A century and a half ago Charles Wesley complained that his fellow-citizens, who professed Christianity, "the sinners unbaptized obtain." And everyone who remembers the social and moral state of England during the ten years immediately preceding the present war will be inclined to think that the twentieth century had not markedly improved on the eighteenth. Betting and gambling, and the games to which they lead, had increased frightfully, and were doing as much harm as drinkiness used to do. There was an open and insolent disregard of religious observance, especially with respect to the use of Sunday, the Weekly Day of Rest, being perverted into a day of extra amusement and "reveling," labour, there was a general relaxation of moral tone in those classes of society which are supposed to set a good example. There was an ever-increasing invasion of the laws which guard sexual morality; illustrated in the agitation to make divorce even easier than it is now. Other and darker touches might be added; but I have said enough to make my meaning clear. Some say that the war is teaching us to repent of, and to forsake, those national offences. It may be so; but otherwise, we can reasonably connect it with the lessons of Epiphany.

RACE COURSE TRAGEDY INQUIRY.

Following is an extended report of the evidence given by Mr. P. P.
Xavier at yesterday's sitting of the Coroner's Court:—

Mr. P. P. Xavier, proprietor of the Hongkong Printing Press, stated he had had a share in the Xavier Booth on site No. 7 for about nine years.
He took out the P.W.D. permit this year and gave instructions to the contractor to erect the stand the same as last year. His stand was a three-story one. This year the ground floor was used for refreshments, the first floor for cash, sweeps and the top floor was only half the size and specially reserved for ladies.
He did not give any special instructions to the contractor. He examined the stand on the Sunday prior to the Races and everything was in good order. He supplied refreshments on the stand. No cooking was done but a Chinese chatty was used for boiling water. Only charcoal was used.
There was one main entrance to his shed on the first floor. There was no entrance on the ground floor. The door on the first floor was about six feet wide. He was in the shed at the time of the collapse, on the first floor. He heard a noise of people trying to run. He thought it was fighting or something like that, and then the shed collapsed, towards the United Stand. He fell down on top of his two sisters. One sister shouted, for help. He tried to escape.
His wife and children were there.
They made a hole in the matting and helped out the children. He and 18 members of his family escaped through the hole. One of his sisters died. The hole was on the Golf Club side of the shed. He was about the tenth of his family to get out. He did not see any fire until he got out. No fire started in his shed. There were about 200 people in his shed. Four of his office staff were missing. He could not say how many other people were killed in his shed.

By the Crown Solicitor: Admission to his shed was by ticket. They were invitation tickets. He issued about 500 tickets. No charge was made. The tickets were sent to some Chinese, Portuguese and English friends. Refreshments were not charged for; they could be obtained by application for a ticket, to him.
There was whisky available. He ran a cash sweep and deducted 15 per cent. He had no electric light in his stand. He had no precautions against fire. In his opinion the collapse was due to overcrowding.
He did not count the people in his shed.

By Mr. Bowley: The reason the people did not get out was because of being crushed. His sister was held down by a blackboard. There was no way out of the basement except by going upstairs. There were bamboo tables in the basement.
The police made no objection to his having a refreshment room. He had a Portuguese ticket collector at the door. Some people were admitted without tickets. There was an oil lamp in the basement. It was not alight in the daytime. There was also a charcoal chatty, and a jar of water for making tea. He heard people running out from the second floor of his shed; then it collapsed. He did not know how many people were on the top floor.
By Mr. d'Almeida: Mr. L. Xavier, his uncle, was in charge of the shed.
He perished in the fire. By Mr. L. Xavier By Mr. Bowley: Mr. L. Xavier was in No. 9 shed at the time of the collapse. Witness was in charge of No. 7 then.

By Mr. Stevenson: He could not say where the sheds were overcrowded. He tried to get into the Japanese booth and the booth next to it on the first day of the races after time, and they were so crowded that he could not get in.
The Court then adjourned until Friday, at 11 a.m.

The following letter has been received:—
E. E. F.
January 15, 1918.
Dear Mrs. Knowles:—Lieut. Harris has told me, in one of his letters, that you were largely responsible for getting together the fine collection of warm caps that recently reached us from Hongkong.
The caps have been a great boon to the men who, for the first time during the war, have had to face real wintry conditions—from mid-December to the end of February the weather in the Judean Hills alternates between torrential rains and bitter cold, snow falling as a rule several times each year at Jerusalem.
The helmets were sent on as soon as possible after their arrival at our depot and reached us in Xmas week when we were in the hills within a few miles of Jerusalem, and when the weather was doing its worst for us.
The mufflers we gave to the Indian Officers and they were much appreciated.
For all your trouble and work we are very grateful and I hope you will accept our best thanks and through you to all your helpers. The men splendidly maintained the reputation of the H.K. Str.—during the advance in Palestine—and that our efforts were not unappreciated is shown by the prompt award of a Military Cross for Lieut.
Everden who came with us from Hongkong, two D.C.M.s. and three Military Medals—all for specific acts of gallantry.
Again thanking you for your efforts on our behalf.—Yours sincerely, (Signed) D. A. MOORE.
ALICE D. HICKLING,
Acting Secretary.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Parcel Post service to places in Szechuan Province is suspended until further notice.

We are asked to mention that owing to several reasons the Lusitania Recreation Club Annual Athletic Sports will not be held this year.

In future, mail for Hongkong will be closed at the General Post Office and at Sheungwan Er P.O. at 5 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays; on other days as at present.

In connection with the cerebrospinal meningitis epidemic, we have been requested to state that atomizers have been installed at Kowloon Railway Station and also at the Yau-mat Disinfecting station, for the use of the public.

Given favourable weather, tomorrow's Flower and Vegetable Show at the Botanical Gardens, held under the auspices of the Hongkong Horticultural Society, should prove one of the most successful shows ever held in the Colony. There are more entries than last year and despite the dry and cold weather experienced, the exhibits promise to be exceptionally fine.

DEATH INQUIRY.

An inquiry was held at the Magistracy this afternoon, over the death of a Chinese stall holder named Chan Ping at the Western Market, who died whilst under arrest for gambling.

Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe acted as the Coroner and the jury was composed of Messrs. F. Perry, E. Hall and A. Sepper.
Mr. Leo D'Almada appeared on behalf of the widow of the deceased.

After the jury had been sworn in, the Coroner outlining the case said that according to Police evidence, the deceased was arrested for gambling in the street on the 12th of Feb. last.
The man was taken to the Police station by the Chinese constable who effected the arrest, and whilst on the way, he had an attack of the heart and died.
The deceased's relatives, however, maintained that the deceased was not gambling at all. He was on his way home from work when he was stopped by some persons who demanded money from him. He refused and it was alleged that they struck him thereby bringing about his death.

Dr. McKenny, who had made a post-mortem examination, deposed that the deceased had advanced aortic disease of the heart and a degenerated main artery. Death was due to rupture of the heart.

In reply to Mr. D'Almada, witness said that excitement would accelerate death considering deceased's condition.
Deceased might have lived for a year or so assuming that there was no excitement. Considering the disease (if the heart, a blow in the region over the heart might cause excitement, from which death might ensue, but he saw no signs of it. Witness added that the fear and excitement that might follow an arrest might have accelerated death.

In reply to the Coroner, witness said that it was usual to find marks on the body when a blow was struck, but not always.

By Inspector Kent. If a man were struck with a truncheon he would certainly expect to find marks on his body.

A Chinese constable gave evidence that whilst on duty on Feb. 12th he saw a crowd of people in Queen's Road Central, near the Western Market, and on going up to them he saw that they were gambling. The crowd dispersed when they saw him and the deceased was left alone on the mattress on which they were sitting, picking up some money which he put in a bag.
Witness arrested him. Another constable came and helped him to take up the mattress and the cash tray while witness was holding on to the deceased. Whilst on the way to the Police Station, about 30 to 40 yards away from the scene of the arrest, deceased stumbled and fell on the ground. Witness asked him what was the matter and receiving no reply he called to the other constable and together they lifted the deceased and put him into a rickshaw and brought him to the Police Station.
After further evidence the case was adjourned until to-morrow at 2.15 p.m.

AFFAIRS IN CHINA.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

ANXIETY IN PEKING.

PEKING, Mar. 12.
Tcheng Tso Ling, the Military Governor of Mukden, is defying the Government's orders, and has sent troops into Chihli, ostensibly en route to the South, to fight the rebels, but the arrival of several thousands of troops at Langfang, apparently en route to Peking, is causing anxiety here.

[A Peking telegram to our Chinese contemporary says that Chang Jih Lum is trying to get the provinces to agree to the installation of Tuan Ki Sai in the Presidency. He has urged the President not to resign and promised to do all he can to help him. On the other hand, Tsen Chun Huen and Tan Yin Hoi have telegraphed to the President urging him to take definite action against Chang Jih Lum. Tsen Chun Huen, the capital, saying that if there is a trouble among the northern leaders the general situation will become still more complicated. Tuan Ki Sai on 11th inst. despatched a circular telegram of 5,000 words to the provinces relating to the President's resignation and cabinet situation.]

AMERICAN ENGINEERS ROBBED AND CAPTURED.

PEKING, Mar. 12.
Bandits have robbed and captured near Yehsien, in Honan, two American engineers, who were carrying a large sum for payment to the surveyors of the proposed railway.

[A more detailed report received by mail from the North says:—The American engineers, Messrs. Kyle and Parcell, and their Chinese assistant have been robbed and captured by bandits near Yehsien, in Honan. The party was going out to inspect the survey work of the proposed railway from Chowchikow to Singangit and were carrying a large sum of money. The escort of twenty soldiers with the party resisted the bandits and a running fight ensued till their ammunition was exhausted, whereupon the party surrendered. Two Chinese engineers escaped and reported the outrage, which is almost without precedent in North China.]

PINKIE AND THE FAIRIES.

PLAY TEMPORARILY ABANDONED.

The A. D. C. regretfully announce that, on medical recommendation, rehearsals for "Pinkie and the Fairies" have to be temporarily abandoned.
It is expected, however, to produce the play in the autumn when it is hoped that the services of those already engaged will still be available.

THE CATHEDRAL ORGAN.

The organ in St. John's Cathedral, which has been undergoing the process of re-construction for nearly eight months, is to be re-opened on Monday next at 9.15 p.m. when Mr. Denman Fuller will give a Recital. Always a fine instrument very few until they hear the results now obtained can have any conception of what has been done. With the introduction of electric blowing the insertion of pneumatic action in parts of the instrument has been possible, and this means that it has been possible to enormously extend the resources of the organ, particularly as regards the pedal department. The wind pressure has been increased throughout and the tone of the pedals in particular thus much improved; some three or four stops have been added, and perhaps the most remarkable feature of the instrument is the wonderful brilliance and power now obtainable from it.
A small history of the organ and an account of what has been done is being issued with the programme; the event, which is in the nature of a landmark not only in the history of the Cathedral but in the musical life of the Colony, will be looked forward to with interest.

A FAMILY NECESSITY.

EVERY family should be provided with Chamberlain's Pain Balm at all times. Sprains may be cured in such less time when promptly treated.
Lame back, lame shoulder, pains in the side and chest and rheumatic pains are some of the diseases for which it is especially valuable. Try this balm and become acquainted with its qualities and you will never wish to be without it.
For sale by all Chemists and Storekeepers.

Andrew's Society that he undertake the allocation of the fund in accordance with the objects for which it was raised. Telegraphic advice was recently received from Sir Charles

JAPAN STEEL SCANDAL INVOLVES OVER 100.

OFFICIALS UNDER ARREST FOR BRIBERY.

A Reuter's message from Osaka dated the 6th inst. says:— The Fukuoka (Kisshu) authorities have just removed the bases on the publication of the details of a sensational case of bribery in connection with the sale of the output of the Government Steel Works at Yawata and also the transportation of coal.
The persons being prosecuted number 117 and include officials of the Yawata Works and of the Kinshu Division of the Government Railway and the Board of Directors, employees, private shipbuilders and mine owners. Five of the persons being prosecuted have committed suicide, including Mr. Oshikawa, the President of the Government Steel Works.
The magnitude of the case has required the personal direction of the Prosecutor-General Mr. Hirayama, who has been in Osaka twice recently.

Northern Kinshu, which is the Pittsburg of Japan, is now a veritable bonanza. Further arrests are expected as the investigation is still proceeding.

BEST MEDICINE MADE.

A better medicine cannot be made than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
It relieves the lungs, opens the sore-throat, aids expectoration and assists nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Besides, it contains no opiates and is perfectly safe to take.
For sale by all Chemists and Store-
keepers.
